What is Every Home for Christ doing to help Ukraine?

My Beloved EHC Friend,

We do not need to inform you of the situation in Ukraine today. The news has illuminated in detail the horrific sights of war and bloodshed; we see on our news the captured tears of refugees—mostly women and children—as they flee their nation and we hear the political dialogue around what is happening in front of our eyes.

As members of the family of God, we have brothers and sisters on every side of the border and as part of a broader society of individuals and ministries committed to seeing Jesus made known to “all” and “every,” we have personal connection to ministry family across Eurasia.

Today, Every Home’s Ukraine director’s wife and children have left Ukraine and (with the help of other Every Home leadership in Eurasia) have been relocated to a place of safety. Our director is now fighting to bring aid to people who are impoverished, traumatised, fleeing, and in hiding. Taking Christ to the people of Ukraine right now means running into the war zone, and—when possible—helping people escape.

We also have brothers and sisters in Russia experiencing deep pain. They are not the enemy here—they, too, are victims. One of our partners in Russia has family in Ukraine. All have friends in Ukraine. They are experiencing the economic fallout of the situation. They are struggling to care for their families. They are struggling to minister to their own nation as their ministry comes under scrutiny. There is a sense that the obstacles will only increase in the days ahead.

As followers of Christ, our heart is not “boundaried” by this war. We have always been a “people” who carry a higher loyalty than our nationalities. It isn’t an organisation or a ministry methodology we are loyal to; we are loyal to a message of hope and a message that heals.

As leaders of Every Home for Christ, we have met many, if not most, of our leaders around the world, and we can say from personal experience that we are a people loyal to Christ-centred hope and healing. We all look different and we talk differently, but what we have in common is a drive to make sure that in every circumstance and in every way possible, we are doing all we can to make sure the Gospel of hope and healing gets to each person on earth. This is what the vision of EHC is all about. We are a people who, regardless of where we live and regardless of our theological or organisational affiliation, are unified by a desire to see Jesus made known to each person.

So, today, this is a moment for us as a global organisation to “see” and then to “respond.”

Every Home for Christ is currently rapidly scaling up ministry all across Eurasia to meet the demand of caring for refugees. We are mobilising an enormous amount of financial resources into this area right now and our local leadership has developed an entire Eurasia Conflict Strategy right now to address this circumstance. Today we are sending a Gospel of hope and healing right into the heart of the warzone, as well as ministering to the needs of the people in every nation in Eurasia.

- In UKRAINE, we are sending vans full of food into areas currently under attack; where necessary, those same vans will evacuate women and children. Each van trip costs US$350 (around A$450 or NZ$512).
- In MOLDOVA, we are converting areas that were once used to host summer camps into facilities to house refugees.
- In POLAND, we are printing scripture and prayer booklets for refugees that can be distributed along with food and other necessary supplies.
- In ROMANIA, we are distributing hygiene supplies to refugees as they pass through.
- In BULGARIA, we are working with the local Bible society to provide New Testaments to each refugee who arrives in the country.

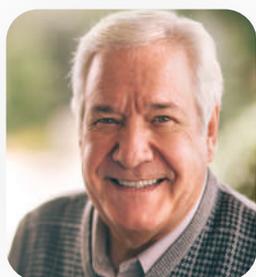

Across Eurasia, we are standing in solidarity with the suffering. The hopeless need hope. The suffering need healing. We will aim to offer this through our presentation of the Gospel (as we always do) and through practical relief needed right now.

We ask you to unite with us in prayer for a season of dedicated prayer. We believe this is a time for each of us, scattered around the world, to pray and fast. On our knees, we humble ourselves before our God. He is our deliverance. He is our shield.

We conclude with these words from a brother in the midst of this conflict:

“I’M WORRIED AND PRAY AND SOMETIMES CRY, I’M SICK AT HEART, BUT AT THE SAME TIME I CONTINUE TO ENCOURAGE EVERYONE TO ACTIVELY SPREAD THE WORD OF GOD ... BECAUSE ONLY HIS WORD CAN CHANGE THE HUMAN HEART.”

On behalf of all those suffering today, we ask that you respond. We are in this together.

Every Home for Christ International

IN AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND, FUNDS RAISED FOR THE UKRAINE CONFLICT WILL BE SENT THROUGH EVERY HOME FOR CHRIST INTERNATIONAL.

YOUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN EURASIA ARE ALREADY IN MOTION, RESPONDING TO A RAPIDLY DEVELOPING, COMPLICATED CRISIS.

Due to the perpetually changing nature of this crisis and increased security risks to our brothers and sisters serving in this region, we cannot disclose their names or locations. Each leader, family, and team faces unique, heart-rending challenges. Some have fled their homes; others are preparing to receive and shelter refugees. Families have been forced to split up. The growing volatility of the situation poses serious risk to ministry activities and presents enormous obstacles, yet Every Home teams are racing into the fear, pain, and uncertainty with the comfort and hope of the Gospel. They report that anxiety, uncertainty, and enormous humanitarian need are visible everywhere and they are gathering resources to respond to critical physical and spiritual needs.

Together, we can shine the bright light of Jesus' truth and love that is bigger than earthly borders and conflicts.

WILL YOU CONSIDER SUPPORTING YOUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS SERVING IN EURASIA?

WHERE THERE'S A WILL,
THERE'S A WAY

Every Home for Christ is extremely grateful for the gifts that have been given through Wills and we would like to acknowledge all those who have left EHC funds in their Estates over many years. Over the last 12 months bequests from the following EHC supporters from Australia and New Zealand have been such a blessing.

Miss Jessie Tham
Mrs Dorothy Foster
Miss Rae Argus
Mrs Loma Way
Mrs Olive Bertram
Mr Brian Towse
Mrs Cleone Ferigo

THANK YOU
SO MUCH

A WILL IS NOT FOREVER

You can revisit it as many times as you please. If you do not want to change the Will substantially, all you need is a Codicil with the changes. It makes sense to review your Will after you retire.

WHEN THERE IS NOT A WILL

Your estate will be divided among your legal heirs according to the law of the country.

Your heirs may have to spend long hours in court to take possession of their property. They will also probably have to pay legal advice.

INFORMATION

At Every Home for Christ we have some information we can send you to help you in preparing your Will—this information is sent to you free of charge.

EVERY HOME FOR CHRIST

Also let me encourage you to pray about including Every Home for Christ in your Will. It's a decision in your "lifetime" and I am sure you will be blessed just as you are now when you give a gift.

May God guide you.

Let's Pray!
